Mitchell Co-Eds vs. Barium Alumni

When you read this it will be very past football season - even the Bowl games will have been played, but there is just one game you must hear about. It happened on Thanksgiving Day at Barium Springs and it was between the Mitchell Co-eds and the Barium Alumni. Now, the Mitchell Co-eds are boys and there are about 85 at Mitchell College. The idea for this game started out as sort of joke, but as time went along the boys got more and more serious about it and when Thanksgiving Day finally arrived the event took on the appearance of a Bowl game. There was a grand crowd out to see it: the weather was beautiful a nice, sunshiny afternoon. Men women and children came, and the Barium Alumni looked formidable. They brought so many wives and children with them that it took a separate section to handle them and it was difficult to keep the second generation off the bench.

Listen to this line-up, you old football fans. At center for Barium was Roscoe Smith, a recent graduate. At ends were Toe Donaldson and Lee Spencer. Toe has children in high school and he belonged to one of those teams of way back yonder when Barium's annual occupation was to beat the State Champions. We did it so regularly and so neatly that we were called "The Giant Killers". We liked to pick out the champion in each of the Conferences and work on them. There was Buck Brigance, that motorcycle racer, who is so toughened up from spills from his motorcycle that a little thing like a tackle or a block did not even irritate him. He did have to stop for breath occasionally. By the way, Brigance came all the way from Jacksonville, Florida, to get in this game. There were three boys from Chapel Hill - Benny Gregory, George Lewis, and Dave Burney. From right here at Barium in addition to the ones already mentioned there was Ralph Spencer at guard, Joe Ben Gibbs in the backfield, and even old man Jackins, the Barium Coach. When Jackins used to play as a regular he was one of those slim, willowy, slippery backs. Now he has sacrificed a good bit of his speed to weight, and he cannot carry his 225 plus around like he used to carry his 150 but he was still potent and toted a mean ball all during that game. He really set up the one touchdown that was the margin of Barium's victory. Arthur Roach was here with his wife and baby to watch him, and he looked just like the Roach of old. He made the touchdown that won the victory. Dwight Spencer, now a student at Mitchell College, was torn between two loyalties - whether to play on Barium's team or Mitchell's. He finally chose a Barium uniform. His half-brothers, Fred and Clyde Johnson, wearing the same uniform created too much of a pull for him. Kenneth Baker, another Barium alumnus, played on the Mitchell team, so that evened things up. There was Charlie Sears whom a lot of Davidson folks remember as the midget back who helped to defeat V M I one year while at Davidson. Ed Oliver, the boy who led Barium to a 28-0 victory over Greensboro; Ed Flowers, the speed-boy of one of our former teams and who now lives in Statesville, and to complete the list of Eds there was Ed Cole, one of the backs of that miracle midget team, who was so good that he finally made the varsity without getting

Some of This Year's Senior Class Ten Years Ago

Take a good look at this picture, and then preserve it because in about five months the Messenger will carry individual pictures of nine people who are in this picture. They will be graduating and in this picture they are second graders - just ten years ago this picture was made.

the fourth in the row looking down is Mildred Monroe; next to her is Ernestine Baldwin, and between them and behind is Charles Barrett. Second from the end is Lucile Stricklin. All of these are in the present senior class at Barium.

In the front row the third from the left is Doris Gant who is a senior in the Statesville High School this year. Third from the right in the back row is Betty Lou Hooten who is graduating in San Francisco this year. The teacher, by the way, will have to remain unidentified. She is still teaching at Barium and looks just as youthful as she does in this picture. She might not like it known that she has been teaching here that long. We are rather proud of it and proud of her.

There are also two others in the picture who are still at Barium. The little girl in the back row slipped one grade and is now a junior - Helen Vinson, and then in the first row third from the right, is another who due to illness missed two grades - that is Elizabeth Johnson.

Down in the first row at the extreme left is a young lady who is now a settled married woman - believe it or not. Tempus does fugit!

We are going to miss all of these young people when they finish up here.

Children Enjoying Christmas Parties

There was a time when all the time before Christmas was just a time of delightful waiting and lively anticipation of the things that were going to happen on Christmas day.

This year we have not had time to do much thinking about the future for enjoying the present. Here are just a few of the things that have happened. The Playhouse Theatre invited all of us to come in and see The Miracle of 34th Street, and that was just like having an extra Christmas. Everyone who saw it, and that includes all of us, thoroughly enjoyed that fine picture. And then on last Tuesday night, the 9th, the fraternities at Davidson invited 157 boys and girls from Barium, practically everything below the high school and above the Baby Cottage. Eleven fraternity and independent groups did the inviting. There were around fifteen children as guests at each of these eleven parties. The groups were arranged by Mr. Calhoun. They went down on our buses and trucks right after supper Tuesday night. They were met in front of the Chambers Building by a boy from each of the inviting groups. The Barium children were introduced by one of their number who who had been appointed monitor and then the parties began.

We would not attempt to describe any one of them. Whenever you say "Davidson Party" to a

THE LIGHTS OF CHRISTMAS

In many lands there are no Christmas lights. In some countries millions have never heard the story of God's great gift to man of the light which shone from the Manger Cradle or the Glory of God which shone round about when the angels Host sang Glory to God in the highest.

The lights of Christmas should mean more to us than the candle in the window; the lights on the Christmas trees or the brilliant illumination of the city streets. In the Beginning of Creation God said "Let there be light and there was light," and, as the curtain of darkness lifted, the miracle of light drove away the darkness. Paul gives us the spiritual interpretation of that sublime scene in II Cor. 4:6 "For God, who hath commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts; to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ." So, after all, the great and blessed Christmas light is that which comes from him who said, "I am the light of the world." There is then one light, one hope, that is found in that "light not seen on land or sea."

But we are His. He teaches us that we should walk as children of light. Paul is very bold as he says

Football Banquet Held Here On December 11

By ALWYN MORRISON

A most delightful occasion was that of the annual football banquet at Barium Springs last night, which honored some sixty odd football stalwarts of the home, for outstanding play on the football gridiron this past season.

A most delicious steak supper was served, at beautiful appointed tables set in Rumpel dining hall at Barium, and with their decorations suggestive of the past football season and of the approaching holiday season, made a most attractive scene as some one hundred or more officials, alumnae, workers and invited guests enjoyed a most delightful evening together. During the supper, Miss Rachel Hickman, music director at Barium and a sextet of singers at the home made the occasion a most delightful one with some snappy and entertaining song hits. Those composing the sextet were Misses Betty and Peggy Coffey, Betty Jo Smith and Messrs. Herbert Good, Charles Barrett and Jerry Young.

Genial Mr. Joseph B. Johnston, superintendent of the home, welcomed all present and introduced a number of his guests of the evening, including a number of the alumnae of Barium Springs. Messrs. Sid Bost and Bill McLain of the Statesville Daily Record, Alwyn Morrison of the Statesville Daily, assistant coach Moneyhan of Davidson College, and Heath Whittle, who incidentally is Mrs. Southerland's son-in-law.

Mr. Johnston called on Joe Ben Gibbs, a former outstanding Barium athlete, to present the letter certificates to the 85 pound team that won five out of five games played this past season, these being: Edsel McArthur, Jimmy Freeman, Jimmy Johnson, Dean Upton, Jerry Hudgins, Robert Lee Hall, Charles Hall, Larry Dean, Ennis Blackburn, Calvin Burleson, Everett Vest, Woody Smith and Archie McMannan.

To Donnie Bolton, another former outstanding athlete at Barium went the honor of presenting the letter certificates to the 100-pound team that won seven games this season without a setback, these being: James Wheeler, Mack Wicker, Charles Faircloth, Carl Spicer, John Plyler, Alfred Williams, Palmer Wilcox, Ray Shumaker, Bobby McMannen, Clyde Dellinger, Billy Black, Joe Barkley, Jack Harwell, Dean Upton and Bobby Whiting.

Mr. Johnston next called on another former outstanding Barium athlete, Ralph Spencer, to present the letters to the Junior varsity or "B" team, which com-

Eighth Grade Presents A Christmas Play

The eighth grade gave a Christmas present to every member of the first seven grades Thursday, Dec. 18, 1947, when they presented the heart-warming one act play, "The Birds' Christmas Carol" in the high school auditorium. The play, an out growth of a project in English, was a dramatization of Kate Douglas Wiggin's famous story of the "Ruggleses in the dear Carol Bird. The costumes, reminiscent of the "eighties", were planned and executed by the wearers. A prize was given to the member of the cast judged to have inter-

WHAT CHRISTMAS MEANS TO ME

By CHARLES BARRETT
Member Senior Class, Barium Springs High School, Barium Springs, N. C.

WHAT does Christmas mean to me? At this writing I can't attribute its meaning to any one thing and say, "That's what it means to me".

In writing this composition, I shall try in an informal, subjective way to acquaint you with the different attitudes I have taken toward Christmas during my past seventeen years.

What the first few Christmases meant to me can be described in one word - PRESENTS. I was strictly on the receiving end, and what interested me most was whether I got more presents than anyone else.

But, as a few more years passed, I learned a new significance of Christmas. I now divided the season in two parts: Santa Claus's part, and Christ's part. The latter I didn't fully understand; in fact at the age of six, I thought "Silent Night" was a Halloween song; and as far as going to church and hearing beautiful music, I enjoyed that; but we went to church all year; therefore I didn't get the special significance out of the religious Christmas festivities, knowing only one phase of Christmas, that of Santa Claus, my thoughts centered wholly around him and what I would receive.

When I was in the fourth grade, and about to celebrate my eleventh Christmas, our teacher asked us to prepare a Christmas note book. Wanting mine to be different, I decided to try my hand at poetry. The result was the following poem, entitled "Christ's Birth".

In a manger filled with hay
There the little Christ Child lay,
With His parents watching o'er Him,
And the angels round about them.

And the wise men from afar,
In the East had seen His star,
As they rode out to the West,
Where the star was soon to rest.

And the angels as they flew,
Came and told the shepherds too,
As they sang Christ Jovely,
For He was born in Bethlehem.

Our minister had it published in the bulletin. My ideas of Christmas were changing.

It was two years later that I gave my first Christmas gift. I shall never forget it. It was a simple picture of the American flag with a prayer for a better world written below it. I gave it to my mother. She was more surprised than anything else, but she kept it. The act of giving that first Christmas gift meant something to me - I believe that after that gesture in Christmas sharing to know a new meaning to me.

In the foregoing paragraphs, I have tried to show the change that has taken place in my thinking since I was first introduced to Christmas. Now I shall try to reveal how I feel about Christmas now.

The thing that means most to me in the celebration of Christmas is the beautiful music. The music written for this season is the most beautiful ever written, in my opinion. Great composers were inspired to write magnificent Cantatas such as Handel's "Messiah", which is probably the most famous. The Christmas lyrics have many lessons one would do well to learn. In mentioning these beautiful hymns and cantatas, I wouldn't minimize the many heart-warming stories such as "The Birds' Christmas Carol". From these stories and lyrics we can largely get the real meaning of Christmas. In them we find wonderful lessons on tolerance, love and kindness. An example is, "Good will hence forth from heaven to men." What does it mean? To me it is the fulfillment of what the prophets had been saying all through the ages. At last a Savior was coming who would save the world from sin. It means God will redeem man from his sins and give him a second chance - which none of us could do without.

Christmas has become a time of joy! To me, joy is the keynote of Christmas; and joy is incomplete unless it is shared.

Joy, it has been said, is the sign that the soul has found an object. To me the chief source of joy is found in a demonstration of thoughtfulness to others. During Christmas our joy reaches new heights, because we celebrate a new birth of our Savior, "Who came to minister; not to be ministered unto."

"The keynote of Christmas is joy". Christmas to me, means the joy of giving, of receiving, and of the rebirth of Christ in the hearts of all mankind.

Dickens, in his inimitable story, "A Christmas Carol", has expressed my feelings of Christmas far better than I can, when he has Scrooge's nephew say, "Christmas is a good time; a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time; the only time I know of the long calendar of the year, when men and women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely, and to think of people below them as fellow passengers to the grave, and not another race of creatures bound on other journeys."

My Christmas prayer this year is a prayer that could be universally prayed. "Give Peace for all time, dear Lord, and fill our hearts and the hearts of all men everywhere with the love of Christ Jesus," who was born in an humble stable two thousand years ago. This is what Christmas means to me.

SEWING ROOM

Dear Friends,

It hardly seems time to write sewing room news again. Everyone's mind has been on Christmas, so the time has certainly flown by. We finished making coats since we wrote you last, and we are now working on dresses for the Woman's Building girls. Our materials are steadily decreasing since the "new long lengths" have come out. Incidentally, our girls like the new longer dresses. We certainly are proud of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Fox who have been working so well since we started to school. We are in the sewing room only a small part of the day, so our two matrons are really kept busy.

Three of our girls, Lucille, Sadie, and Betty Joe are on the basketball team. We had a game last night with Celeste Henkel and won. Another of our girls, Ernie Baldwin, is book-keeper. She is quite a mathematician. Virginia Presnell is the manager this year and is kept very busy by our famous "All Stars".

Our twins, Peggy and Betty, are having a happy birthday today. They're suffering from longevity today since they are now eighteen.

WOMANS BUILDING

One of the most enjoyable fall parties was the square dance given by the Juniors and Seniors the night following Thanksgiving. Most of us wore jeans and dressed as much like hill-billies as possible. We succeeded I think. The gym was decorated in the barn motif, and believe me it looked more like a barn than a gym. Without too much trouble we rigged up a horse out of a carpenter's horse, but failed to locate a "cow". Hill-billy music was provided for the square dancing, which was called by Mr. Neill and Mr. Hostettler, both of Troutman.

After standing in line for three hours the Juniors and Seniors finally boarded the "Freedom Train" and explored the documents searching for some thing that our history teacher, Miss Thompson, had not already told us.

Mr. Sams, of Statesville, invited us to a "free" show and we wish to thank him. We enjoyed the show very much and recommend it to you. (Lots of Freedom!)

We wish for all of you who read the Messenger a merry, joyful Christmas and a healthy and happy new year.

INFIRMARY

It is so near time for Santa and we have been writing our Christmas letters. We are just about to write this in letter form.

We have had only three or four sick ones in the past month. Don't tell anyone but maybe the reason for no sickness is because they have heard Santa doesn't visit the sick. But little David Reid doesn't think the way everyone else does. He has spent the past two years and says he wants to again this year.

We had two girls, Marie Andrews and Hazel Creech on the honor roll, we are proud to say just one or two unsatisfactory marks kept the other three girls off.

Glad to welcome two new comers, David and Sidney Morrison into our home.

We wish to thank Circle Number 4 of Mooreville for the candy, cake and chewing gum they brought us. We surely did enjoy it.

We hope Santa is as good to everyone as he is to us. We wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

So long.

SYNOD COTTAGE

Hip, Hip, Hooray. We boys have a new boy - Little Bobby Synod, our dog.

Dr. Nesbit visited us Saturday afternoon bringing us candy and a beautiful white and black puppy three months old.

We received cookies and candy for Thanksgiving from the Business Women's Circle. "Yum Yum, so good."

Thanksgiving day Mr. Inman visited his daughter bringing a fifty pound bag of pecans. Shirley sure does make good fudge with pecans. Someone, we don't know who, brought us some goodie-good home made candies. We hope you see this, thanks.

Circle No. 4 from Morganton sent us some books and we are sure enjoying them. Louise and Shirley are reading to us one half hour each evening before going to bed. We certainly do appreciate the money for candy from the same ladies.

We all were treated to a trip to see "The Miracle of 34th St." at the Playhouse Theatre. It was so good. Now we all are sure Santa will answer our letters.

We had eight children on the honor roll, of which we are very proud.

Leaves are falling and we are trying to help clean the campus.

Our champion "sack-filler" in the leaf cleaning crew is Nat Craig. He has a system all his own he lays the sack on the ground and with his back to the bag puts his feet on the opening of the bag, bends over and pulls the other part over his back, with hands like little diggers he soon has his bag full then he jumps in and packs them down. This should be seen to be appreciated. This is his own idea.

We are a happy group and in unison we shout: Merry Christmas to all from Synod's Boys, Girls and Housemother.

HOWARD COTTAGE

We have been raking leaves since the last time you heard from us. We have raked up 224 sacks. The faster we rake them the faster they fall.

We had thirteen girls on the honor roll last time. Margaret Hucks made the 13th one. The ones that made the honor roll the first month got to go to a show and window shopping.

Christmas will soon be here and we are all excited. We hope you have a Merry Christmas.

We got to go to a free show in the Barium bus. The name of the show was, "Miracle on 34th Street." It was a very good show about Santa Clause.

Some of the small cottages get to go to a party at Davidson on December 9th.

Most of us have new boots and galoshes. They are brown and red. Well I guess we had better sign off until next time.

RUMPLE HALL

We are back again bringing you our news for this month. We have so much to tell you that we can't write it all down on paper, so we are counting on you to come to see us sometime.

We were invited to Davidson College last week to a Christmas party. The children of the grammar school grade were divided into groups of fifteen and the different Fraternities saw that we had a good time.

We played games and sang carols for a while and then saw motion pictures of some of Davidson's football games. They were very interesting. Each Fraternity house had a Christmas tree with presents for everyone. A boy played Santa to us and we had a grand time.

Another thing that is very important to us is that our rooms are being painted. We are so happy about it that we just had to tell you. We are very proud of them and hope that you will come to see us sometime.

Good bye until next month.
—The Rumble Hall Girls.

Children Enjoying

group of children there is such a clamor of everybody trying to tell it at once that all we can gather is that it was one evening of supreme delight. Mr. Jackins drove one of the buses down there. He had been to Davidson possibly a thousand times during his life; he was so entertained by the thirty or more children telling him about the party on the way home that he got lost in Mooreville. That is something that ought to be sent in to Ripley. Mr. Hetheox who drove another bus brought back stories of individual experiences at one of these parties that would fill a small-sized book. We have received letters from Davidson mentioning the results from the boys' side and it altogether adds up into one perfect evening. Whoever thought up that idea and those who carried it out should be commended and have this as a pleasant memory as long as they live.

As this article is written, we are now beginning the last week of school before Christmas. The big event of the week will be the "Give To" Christmas Tree on Wednesday night. This is an occasion where all the children and grownups at Barium make a contribution and decorate a tree. The contribution gets the decoration which is then tied on to the tree and when it is over it is a very much decorated and beautiful tree. This is the third year we have had this and it is a beautiful occasion, one in which everyone joins. Mr. Arrowood and Miss Hickman will lead the music during the decoration of the tree and, all in all, it is a very happy occasion, and some worthy cause or individual is the recipient of our Christmas giving.

Following this on the same night will be the Cantata, arranged by the music department, which will be held in Little Joe's Church.

Then there is a ball game on Thursday night, and then the Christmas parties really begin. The long part of the vacation comes before Christmas Day, but every one of those days will be pleasant with Christmas Day being the climax - a great occasion.

Already Christmas boxes are beginning to come in. One of the rooms which is ordinarily used for a Sunday School class is used for the assorting of these Christmas presents. Yesterday the Sunday School class had to meet somewhere else, as this room was already filling up. By next Sunday there will be places where the pile will reach to the roof, and by that time several of us will have dropped all other duties to see that Christmas presents are properly handled and distributed.

piled the fine record this past season of seven games won in seven attempts, and the players receiving their letter certificates on this team were: Billy Lybrand, Donald Mitchell, Ray Clark, Mack Berryhill, Jimmy Williams, Cecil Burleson, Kenneth Walker, Bobby Johnson, Earl Huddleston, Terrell Hall, Fred Feimster, John Bullard, Bobby Allen, Charles Stephens, Buddy Maples, Johnny Hudgins, Norvin Hilliard, Jerry Ennis, Cecil Creech, Jay Terry and Paul Dellinger.

Before presenting the varsity lads their certificate letters, which also entitles the player to his regular Barium letter, Mr. Johnston stated that six years ago, Barium made a most enviable record on the gridiron in that they were one of the highest scoring football high machines in the State, but along came the war and from then on up to the present season, the Barium varsity team had not quite the success of former seasons, but are gradually building back to the period, before the war wrecked their football fortunes. It was the 85, 100 and 125 pound teams at Barium during the war years that kept things going in a football way at Barium and helped the varsity teams to win some of their games by feeding some of their players up to the varsity eleven. For a school that had only about 35 boys in the high school department, Barium has done exceedingly well on the football gridiron, and some

Those receiving their varsity certificate letters were: James Reid, Jack Clark, Charles Barrett, Jerry Young, Johnny Meroney, Jack Mangum, Ricky Lip-pard, Herbert Good, J. D. Everett, Curtis Baldwin, Kenneth Manus, Rufus Clark, Mason Traywick, Paul Barnes and Bert Atwood.

By a vote of the team, Charles Barrett was elected captain for the 1947 team; Jack Clark was selected unanimously as the most valuable player to his 1947 team. Jerry Young was voted the best blocker and Charles Barrett the best tackler, the latter two receiving miniature sterling silver foot-ball charms for being selected as the best blocker and tackler, these medals being given by your cor-respondent who is interested in clean sports.

With this presentation program completed, the banqueteers ad-journed to the school building where assistant coach Moneyhan of Davidson showed technicolored pictures of two of Davidson Col-lege's football games, these being the Davidson - William and Mary game and the Davidson - Richmond T.L. This concluded a most enjoy-able evening by all who had the pleasure of enjoying this most de-lightful of events on the Barium sports calendar of the year.

The game was an interesting one. A Barium cheering section, of course, took over for Barium and the Mitchell cheering section added some extra thrills. They had a little comedy sketch that they had planned. Here is how it was sup-posed to work: one of the Mitchell boys would pretend to be hurt - completely knocked out. The bug-ler in the Mitchell cheering section then would stand up and play Taps in a very solemn and heartrending manner. After awhile the boy would commence to stir. His ren-dition of Taps would then speed up a little bit, then the boy would get up and start to walk and the Taps would swing into ragtime. Well, it went off apparently ex-actly as rehearsed. The boy on the Mitchell team was down; the bug-ler did his stuff and everybody in the stands thought it was tremen-dously funny. The only trouble was that the boy who got hurt was not in on it and it was not a fake hurt but a real one. The boy was knock-ed almost unconscious and when the fog cleared up in his head he heard Taps being played and he got the idea that the Mitchell cheering section were making fun of him. There might have been a girl involved in there some way; anyhow, he had to be restrained from climbing all over the bugler. However, by nightfall the bugler was able to come out of hiding and everybody went to bed happy with no hangovers of this most interest-ing sports event.

Both sides were so enthusiastic over the outcome that they want to stage it as an annual event, so if you are looking around for some-where to go next Thanksgiving, drop in at Barium. You will very likely be highly entertained.

By the way, the proceeds of the game were divided, the Mitchell boys using theirs for equipment, and the Barium side going into the vacuum caused in the athletic bank account by so many rainy Fridays. Thanks to Mitchell and thanks to our Alumni for the fine entertain-ment they put on.

The Message of the

"But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the image of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory even as from the Lord the Spirit." "Ye are the light of the world" says Jesus. Phil. 2:15 "Be the Sons of God in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world."

Yes we should have our lights burning just now. The world is so dark that Christians should be careful to have their lamps trim-med and burning.

I was interested in seeing a wise quotation from an apocryphal book of the Old Testament II Esdras 14:25 which said, "I shall light a candle of understanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out."

We live in violent times. In days when ideas principles and their ex-pression are matters of life and death. It is a time when we need to exercise ourselves; to be very char-itable, very sympathetic, and very understanding. It would be easy for us to forget that we are Chris-tians and that we follow a Master that even as they drove the nails prayed, "Father forgive them for they know not what they do." Yes, may we have in our hearts lighted the candle of our understanding which shall not be put out."

Another candle that should be lighted in our hearts is the candle of joy.

I am not referring to light or frivolous pleasure. There never was a time when that is more out of place than now. Surely the thoughtless will be restrained from using this season in excess of drink-ing and foolish or riotous living. But it should be a time of deep Christian joy that as a people He has been so good to us. We have our homes where we still have safety. We have an abundance of food, clothing and shelter. We have open churches and open Bibles. We can gather and tell and sing the Christmas story and worship at the manger. We can gather round our family altars and sing our songs and exchange our gifts and our love. And above and beyond all we can live by faith in Him who loved us and gave himself for us.

It is a time when we should keep the candle of love shining very brightly. O there is so much unbridled hate in the world. So many cruel unmerciful things are being done; so many hard words being said, its natural to fall into the spirit of the age. We have a hard thing to do but we must not shrink from it because it is hard. Hear the words of Jesus, "Love your enemies; do good to them that hate you; pray for them that despitefully use you and persecute you that ye may be the children of your Father which art in heaven." Yes, against the mantle of dark and cruel hate, Christ and love should flame out. "How far the little candle throws its beam" said Portia, "so shines a good deed in a naughty world."

Isaiah, who so clearly saw the dawning of the light of Christ, al-so so eloquently prophecies of the duty and privilege and joy of Christians to bring light to the darkened world.

"The people that walked in dark-ness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined." Isa. 9:2.

Isa. 42:6 "I the Lord have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand and will keep thee and give thee for a covenant of the people, and for a light of the gen-tiles."

Isa. 60:1-3 "Arise shine for thy light is come and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. For be-hold darkness shall cover the earth and gross darkness the peo-ple, but the Lord shall arise upon thee and his glory shall be seen upon thee and Gentiles shall come to thy light and kings to the bright-ness of thy rising."

Isa. 60:19 "The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness the moon give light unto thee: but the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory."
